Mr. W. M. O'BRYAN, the elder L. & N. agent at Junction City, was here the other day seeing after his property.

Miss MARY MYERS has gone to spend the vacation at her old home in Virginia, where a happy time awaits her.

Prof. G. U. FRY, our Waynesburg scribe, has gone to Lebanon, Ohio, to recuperate within the walls of his Alma Mater.

Mrs. DAME Sallie Copping and Jennie Dean, who have been visiting Mrs. Joe Swope, returned to Bradfordsville, Saturday.

Mrs. W. A. PUGH and George Givens, of the Laurel Coal Co., at Pittsburgh, were here yesterday to hear the new constitution discussed.

Mrs. R. F. BIRD, of McKinney, and Miss Sue Hansford, of Harrodsburg, are visiting Mrs. Reuben Williams, and all went to High Bridge Saturday.

Miss BETTIE PAXTON returned from Louisville Saturday, and accompanied Miss Mattie Paxton and Jos. B. Paxton to Crab Orchard Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. MAURICE J. FAIRBIS and daughter, Jessie, and Mrs. Josephine Evans, of Danville, have been visiting relatives in this county.

Mr. J. W. PULLIAM, of the Pension Office at Washington, and wife are visiting relatives in this county, and Mr. P. paid us a pleasant call yesterday.

Miss ELLA TINSLEY, the little beauty who endeared herself to every one she met during her stay with the Misses Baughman, returned to Barboursville yesterday.

Mrs. R. J. BRECKINRIDGE, J. W. Yerkes and C. H. Rodes, of Danville, were here yesterday to hear the speaking. Garrard county was also largely represented.

Miss BESSIE BERNARD, of Louisville, one of the bright-eyed little beauties who has been visiting Miss Mary McKinney, left for Cynthia Saturday, with numerous hearts dangling to her belt.

Mr. JOE S. JONES, a popular and successful merchant, of Stanford, was here Sunday visiting Mr. J. D. Swain. He contemplates the establishment of a wholesale business in the Johnston Block. [Somerset Reporter.]

Mr. AD CATRON, of Somerset, who spent several weeks at Rock Castle Springs this season, asks us to state that he was greatly benefited by his sojourn there and that Manager Campbell and wife did all in their power to make it pleasant for him.

CITY AND VICINITY.

FINEST comb honey for sale. J. M. Ware, Maywood, Ky.

The Central Kentucky Medical Association will meet to-morrow, 15th, at Harrodsburg.

THERE came near being a little scene during the speaking of Mr. Rhea yesterday, caused by a misunderstanding, but it was soon over and quiet restored.

VERBAL invitations have been extended by Miss Ella May Saunders to a hop to be given by her at the Portman House to-morrow evening.

FOR SALE.—A six-pocket Pool-Table and 1 set of Bar Fixtures, nice walnut, in first-class condition. Will sell cheap. Address G. D. McCollum, Junction City Ky.

FINEST Candles just received at A. A. Warren's.

FOR SALE.—350,000 brick. B. K. & W. H. Wearon.

NICE cottage for sale or rent. Apply to T. M. Goodnight.

YOUR account is due and ready for you. Please call and settle. W. E. McRoberts.

SOLE agents for Lexington Roller Mill flour. Every sack guaranteed. B. K. & W. H. Wearon.

FOR SALE.—Cottage on upper Main street, containing 4 rooms. Location good. Miss Lizzie Beasley.

I HAVE a nice stock of buggies, surreys and phaetons, and will sell them at prices which defy competition. Joe Severance, Jr.

THE Mt. Nenia school will be taught this session by Mr. N. W. Hughes, and it will open on the first Monday in August.

LIBERTY.—Judge R. J. Breckinridge will speak at Liberty next Saturday at 1 o'clock and at Middleburg at night against the new constitution.

Miss BETTIE TOMPKINS, of Harrodsburg, began the Goshen school yesterday with a full attendance and the promise of a successful session.

A P. O. INSPECTOR examined the office here the other day and pronounced it in first-class shape. He also took occasion to pay Mrs. Courts and Miss Warren a high compliment.

THE Sunday school at Pleasant Hill, near Highland, will give a picnic Saturday, 25th, when there will be exercises by the school, good speaking by distinguished men and a splendid dinner. Everybody invited.

WHILE a crowd of eight from Crab Orchard were coming down to hear the speaking yesterday, their wagon broke and they (including Dave Edmiston and Joe Paxton) were compelled to walk from Walnut Flat, a distance of five miles.

CAPT. H. T. BUSH brought to this office a freak of nature in the shape of a sweet potato vine in bloom. We have heard of such a thing and Uncle Ed McRoberts claims to have seen it, but it is the first vine of the kind most of us ever saw in bloom.

A FREIGHT carrying five car-loads of water-melons, bound for High Bridge, was wrecked at Kingsville Saturday.

The larger quantity of the melons were lost and the Kingsville people have been feasting on them since. Nobody was hurt in the wreck, which was caused by a broken wheel.

ASSAULT.—Report comes from the East End that a young man named Kennedy had been arrested for assaulting old Mrs. Nancy Adams, with whom he became offended. He is said to have gone to her house drunk and when she ordered him away, struck her with a gun breaking her arm.

THERE were 10 colored teachers examined for certificates, eight of whom passed successfully, none getting a very high grade. As a rule most colored teachers go to college; during the winter and spring thus spending the money for which they have taught trying to better prepare themselves for future work.

THE democrats of Garrard have found a capital candidate for the legislature in the person of Mr. Lewis Y. Leavell, who is not only worthy and well qualified, but a democrat in whom there is no guile. The nomination was made by the county committee, but the democracy will ratify it unanimously when it meets next court day.

PRESIDENT J. M. HUBBARD announces in this issue that the next session of Stanford Female College will begin Sept. 1. All of the faculty, including Misses Bedinger, Tipton and Howard, each of whom gave great satisfaction last session, have been re-engaged and we are glad to learn. The school is eminently deserving of the public patronage and the prospect for a large school is very promising.

THE Chairman of the Central Committee of the anti-Constitutionists, Col. J. Stoddard Johnston, was so pleased with the articles in our last issue on the absurdities of the proposed organic law, that he ordered 1,500 extra copies by telegraph, which were promptly printed and sent him. They will be scattered in every portion of the State and we trust will turn many votes against the new constitution. At any rate our advertisers get a benefit.

FRIDAY two gentlemen of the road met here and both happened to be named Thompson. One had money the other had none. The one with the lucre set up the drinks for his less fortunate new found friend and soon got overloaded. In this condition and fearing arrest he prevailed on William Thompson, as he afterwards appeared, to take him outside of town and give him a bed under a tree. When he awoke from his drunken sleep he felt for his money to find that it was gone. Then he swore out a warrant against William, charging him with robbing him of $9, but he was unable to substantiate it on the trial, and William was allowed to go on to Middleboro, where he claimed he was on.

THE SPEAKING YESTERDAY.—The anxiety of people to hear the new constitution discussed was fully demonstrated here yesterday, for they listened to it from 11 o'clock till after 6. Hon. F. E. Bobbitt spoke for an hour in the forenoon, scoring some good points against the document, and a little after 1 o'clock, Hon. C. M. Clay, Jr., was introduced by W. H. Miller, Esq. Mr. Clay spoke for an hour, and even his bitterest opponents agree that he made a strong presentation of his side of the argument. He seems to be fully impressed with the idea that the railroads, and especially the L. & N., are grinding the people to powder, and that the adoption of the new constitution is the only show to stop it. We have not space at this late hour to give even a synopsis of the speech, which was delivered under serious difficulties, but shall take occasion to refer to it hereafter.

Hon. W. B. Smith, of Madison, followed Mr. Clay, and he too made the best he could out of what we consider a very bad cause. His cry like that of Mr. Clay was against corporations, and he worked that demagogic scheme for all it was worth.

It was 4 o'clock when Mr. John S. Rhea arose to answer the honorable gentlemen as well as he could in the pitiful hour and a half granted him. He began by showing how silly was the cry against corporations, the whole stock in trade of the pro-constitutionists, and wading at once into his subject made a powerful argument against the adoption of the new constitution. He is a born orator, and understanding his subject, he was able to make the most telling hits. The court-house was jammed almost to suffocation, but the crowd was bent on hearing him and listened with the greatest attention throughout. That his speech strengthened the cause in which we are laboring will not be denied, we suppose, by anybody. Mr. Rhea evidently had the crowd, if the applause is an indication, and it wanted him to keep on after his time was up.

At the conclusion of Mr. Rhea's speech Judge Breckinridge, who was advertised to speak, explained that he didn't know of the other appointments when he yielded to solicitations to speak against the constitution or he would not have made his. He is against the constitution world without end and could give the best of reasons for it. Mr. Smith attempted to answer Mr. Rhea, but the crowd was weary and but few remained to hear him.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The International Convention of the Young People's Societies of Christian Endeavor, now in session at Minneapolis, is one of the largest religious assemblages ever held in this country. Nearly 15,000 delegates are present from the States and Territories and from Canada.

—A crowd estimated all the way from 6,000 to 10,000 listened Sunday to Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage prove that "We Are Witnesses" at the High Bridge Camp-Meeting, and he had the undivided attention of the immense throng from beginning to end. Seeing is believing, but indeed on this occasion it was hard to believe that such a large crowd could nearly all be so well-behaved, even after seeing it. Undoubtedly the success of the great preacher is due to his simplicity, and his ability to magnify the little things of life. It was a representative Kentucky crowd and a considerable improvement on the average camp-meeting gatherings. The beautiful women for which Kentucky is famous were on hand by the thousands. I noticed only two female representatives from Lincoln, Misses Mamie Lynn and Dovie Talbott, but it is well-known that they beautifully held up their end of the lengthy log of living loveliness.

DEATHS' DOINGS.

—Henry Chappell, aged 24, died at Rowland, Sunday, of consumption, leaving a wife and aged mother to mourn his loss.

—Miss Nannie East, a step-daughter of William Monray, died at his residence at Rowland, Saturday night, of heart disease, aged 20. She was a member of the Christian church and was both pious and exemplary. Rev. John Bell Gibson preached the funeral sermon Sunday afternoon.

—A commission has declared H. Victor Newcomb, late president of the L. & N., insane.

—Thomas Fitzgerald, superintendent of Richmond & Beattyville railroad, dropped dead at Nicholasville.

—A Cuban physician has discovered a cure for yellow fever. He puts his patients in a refrigerator. He has not lost a case.

—It is stated that Mrs. Jefferson Davis has given her consent for the removal of her husband's remains to Richmond, Va.

—Lightning struck the house of S. P. Anderson near Clifton, Texas, killing his wife and three daughters. The bolt also set the building afire and before the bodies of the girls could be removed all were burned.
